500,000 PEOPLE

Throughout the United States & Canadas,

HAVE USED

DR. J. MILLER'S

SOOTHING & HEALING

BALSAM.

And cheerfully recommend it to the public as being the BEST FAMILY MEDICINE in the world for all internal and external complaints for which it is recommended. It is fast gaining popular favor, and has already reached extensive sales. All we ask, in order to convince the most skeptical of the powerful efficacy of this great remedy, is the trial of one bottle, costing only 50 cents, and you will never be without it or hesitate to recommend it to your friends. Sold by druggists everywhere. Every bottle used according to directions is warranted to cure, or money refunded.

The proprietors CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce its superior as a remedy. Testimonials received daily in reference to the astonishing cures it has performed. It is used and recommended by prominent physicians throughout the country.

It has proven infallible for Burns, Scalds, Frozen Limbs, Bruises, Sprains, Wounds of all kinds, Pains in the side, back or shoulder, Piles, Corns, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Stiff Neck, Ague in the face or breast, Ear Ache, Deafness, Loss of Motion of Limbs, Poisoning, Erysipelas, Inflammation of the Eyes, Inflamed Irritation of the Skin. For Rheumatism it is not a certain cure, yet hundreds have been relieved by it when other remedies had failed.

AS AN INTERNAL MEDICINE, when taken in season, it will cure Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Dry Cough, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Canker in the Mouth, Sore Lips, Inflammation of the Bowels, Dysentery, Kidney Complaints and Cholera Morbus.

THE "BALSAM" has also given great relief in many cases of Diphtheria.

No person need fear to use this medicine, as it is purely vegetable in its composition. It is soothing and healing in its influence, and may be given to any age or sex with perfect safety.

Edward Everett's College Life.

When I was a student at Cambridge, there was but a single stagecoach which plied between the colleges and Boston, making the trip twice each way daily. This was the sum total of public conveyances. There were, of course, no omnibuses, and no railroads in those days. The practice of permitting the students who belong to Boston to pass Sunday at home, had not been introduced. Saturday, after the morning recitation, was our holiday. On that morning, when walking was practicable, I used to walk to Boston, carrying week's soiled clothes in a bundle to be washed, and bringing back the bundle of clean ones in the evening. The days of express wagons had not come. The rooms were furnished in a very simple style. I do not recollect that there was a carpet, a window curtain, a sofa, or an easy chair in any student's room; and nearly all the young men brought their own water from the pumps, and trimmed their own lamps. A little luxury in this respect crept into the higher classes. One or two persons got their living about college as general boot-blacks. Charles Lenox, a respectable colored man, became in this way, I have heard the richest man of his complexion in the State. He used to bring in his bill so much for brushing boots. [From Old and New.]

City and Country Hearers.

The late Albert Barnes once delivered a sermon before a graduating class at a theological seminary, and in the discourse he said to the class: "Young gentlemen, one thing never forget; preach your best sermons in the country! I have charge of a city church. I have noticed that young men, preaching for me, chose their best themes and their best thinking, because they were addressing a city congregation. It is a mistake. I tell them so, and I tell you so. The mass of the city congregation read little but the daily papers, and read and think as they live, on the run. On anything but business or social pleasure they think less than they read. People in the country read books—they have time, and they take time, to think, and if you must make a difference, preach your best thought in the country."

The JOURNAL contains a full report of local news, will record all real estate transactions, and give especial attention to improvements in and about the city. Price two dollars a year.

The Chicago Fire.

The terrible calamity which has befallen that noble city almost surpasses the powers of imagination. Sunday morning she was as prosperous as ever, her goodly proportions assuming a better aspect every day, her citizens amassing wealth with a velocity unparalleled, her intense life and activity extending its arms all over our continent and drawing tribute to herself. How different the prospect to day. Imagine a tract of territory eight miles long by four or five miles in width, once thickly studded with buildings, now one smoking mass of blackened ruins, and we have some idea of the extent of Chicago's calamity. In this tract lay the heart of that great city. Above a square mile of splendid buildings, many of them considered fire proof, filled with valuables which money can hardly replace, all of which crumbled before that terrible destroyer.

The effects of this monstrous destruction of property are not confined to Chicago alone, the whole country will feel the shock. Hundreds of insurance companies will be ruined, while those that are able to survive will suffer immense losses. The destruction of so much grain in the elevators will cause a rise in bread stuffs, while hundreds of our merchants throughout the country had all of their effects stored in those granaries. It is impossible to estimate the number of failures that will result from this source. The burning of nearly every bank in the city is enough to cause no slight panic in the money market. In such a hot fire as that must have been it is hardly possible to believe that every safe has proved able to keep out the destroyer, consequently a vast amount of paper money as well as notes, bills, &c., must be found in a ruined condition. Uncle Sam is a loser to a considerable extent with the rest.

Most of the real estate in Chicago is owned in Boston, New York, London and Liverpool, and these capitalists have enough left with which to fall back upon. There is no doubt but that the city will be immediately rebuilt, and that on a grander scale than before. But hundreds of well to do business men are ruined and thousands of laborers are turned homeless into the streets. These are the greatest sufferers of all. What little they had has been burned, their employment is gone, and they must now either be fed by charity or starve.

Insurance Matters.

All classes are more or less interested in the affairs of the Insurance Companies, and since the Chicago fire there has been great uneasiness as to the value of stocks and standing of companies. We gather from various sources the following information concerning those companies in which our citizens are supposed to have an especial interest.

We begin nearest home. The Providence Companies are said to have risks in the doomed city amounting to $2,643,000. The exact amount of loss cannot yet be ascertained, but of course it will not be total. The sum is divided thus, and it must be confessed the showing is not a good one.

American	$1,0,000
Roger William	292,( )
Providence Washington	650,000
Hope	350,000
Atlantic	400,( )
Merchants	13,0( )
Narragansett	38,000

Four or five of the Boston companies are no better off. The Hide and Leather Insurance Company of Boston have a capital of $300,000 and a surplus of 10 per cent., making in all $330,000. Their losses amount to $720,000. The company will be obliged to suspend business, and the stockholders will make a total loss. It is said that the Independant had $1,000,000 at risk and if so it must follow suit. The New England and National have each about half a million, and will probably be able to pay all losses and still live. The other companies have comparatively small sums to meet.

The Hartford companies lose heavily but will come out all right. The Ætna suffers heavily, but probably not enough to even use up her surplus, leaving her immense capital of $3,000,000 untouched. The agent of the Ætna announces that they will pay every dollar at once. The Old Hartford has telegraphed their agents in Chicago to commence the payment of claims. It has also advised agents throughout the country that the company will promptly pay its losses, and that in the continuation of its business in the future, advanced rates will be a necessity.

It is stated that the People's Fire Insurance Company of Worcester, Mass., lose $300,000 of their surplus, leaving them with their capital of $400.00 intact. They are able to pay up without difficulty and will do so.

The Andes is reported used up, so also are the Beekman, Excelsior and Pacific. The Astor of New York has closed its doors for the present. All the Illinois companies will fail. Several English companies lose largely but will pay all claims.

The rates of insurance in Chicago have been reduced within the past few years until some of the Eastern companies have withdrawn their agencies and others have taken lightly. All the wild cats and weak kneed corporations must disappoint those who have put their trust in them.

A few days ago in Paris, police agents visited several of the kiosks on the boulevard and seized all the copies that they could find of the "Tie Parisienne." The cause of this seizure was a harmless pleasantry that it contained in the shape of a caricature representing the venerable President Thiers attired in the uniform of an artillery man of the National Guard, a fuse in his hand, and surmounting the Vendome Column.

Died.

In this city, yesterday morning Hon. Wm. H. Cranston, in the fifty second year of his age.

The deceased was the son of the late Hon. Henry Y. Cranston, and was the last scion, with the exception of Hon. Robert B. Cranston, "the noblest Roman of them all" now in his eightieth year, of the Cranston family of this branch—a name historic in the annals of Rhode Island from the period of its earliest times—one, Samuel Cranston having been elected twenty-nine years in succession, Governor of the Colony, while under British rule—Rhode Island and Connecticut, at that time, being the only colonies allowed to choose their own governors by a vote of the people. The members of the family have continued to hold offices of trust and honor, from the "olden time" until the present day, which they filled always with honor and usefulness.

Mr. Cranston had not a classical education, for, after his preparatory academical course, he entered Brown University, but remained only one term, when he returned home and entered the law office of his father in which he was invaluably useful as a draughtsman of legal documents of every description, in which he had no superior for readiness or correctness.

He was always an intimate associate in the offices of the newspapers printed in the city, from his earliest years, and about 1840—He took charge of the DAILY NEWS as editor, that paper having been bought out by himself and George H. Norman Esq. and owned and conducted by them under the firm of Cranston & Norman. This paper was purchased by a company of gentlemen in the year 1850, and thus ended his editorial labors.

In the year 1857, Mr. Cranston was elected Mayor of Newport, and continued to hold that office for a period of nine years during which, he manifested the most distinguished executive ability, and a thoroughness of all the qualities requisite to make a superior magistrate, whom few have equalled, and none have excelled. Decision and energy in the discharge of his duty, great sagacity, and a strong faith in himself, together with a moral courage and an indomitable spirit to do whatever he believed to be his duty, were the characteristics of his magistracy; indeed, they may be contained in the brief summary of three words, promptness, energy and decision. His Mayorship included the period of the war, during which, in connection with our present worthy and energetic Post Master, Thomas Coggeshall, (emphatically the soldiers friend), he was unwearied in his efforts in the enlistment of soldiers and in the care of their families while they were absent on their duties. Indeed he was a model magistrate and possessed of rare qualification for any executive's office.

After his retirement from office, he became physically debilitated, and after suffering several spells of severe sickness, he gradually sank as it seemed from sheer weakness and death closed at once his sufferings and his life.

Mr. Cranston was possessed of something more than talent, he had genius, and although small of statue, he mentally towered above the average of his fellows, and was recognized among them as a man of worth.

His disposition was affectionate, his manners courteous and his urbanity perfect. Indeed, he had a winning way that made him friends wherever he was known, and, not that only, but secured the life-long adherence to his interests. As a friend he never faltered; he was devotion itself. He never allowed the calls of friendship to be interfered with or estopped by any selfish consideration. If, upon that sacred altar, self sacrifice was required, he was promptly ever ready to make it to the extent of his ability and means.—To the calls and promptings of friendship, he ever held an open palm.

That the deceased was perfect, we do not claim, and we are not aware that he has left any example of perfection among the race whom he has left on his sprejourney to the land of eternal shadows. But his faults and weaknesses, whatever he may have had, were but the tokens of his humanity, and were the natural outgrowth of an eminently social nature that made him the life of the social circle. Without them he would have been more than human, and with them, he could be no less. Whatever amount of alloy may have been mixed in his work, the pure metal prevailed to render him an honor to his kind. Indeed, he always did his best as he understood his duty. He

"So wore his outward best, and joined
Each office of the social hour
To noble manners, as the flower
And native growth of noble mind."

But he has gone with all his honors and his gifts:

"This is the state of man: today he gives
The tender leaves of hope—tomorrow blossoms forth
And bears his blushing honors thick upon him,
The third day comes a frost—a killing frost."

The subject of this notice will go to his grave amid the regrets of a whole community, to whom his virtues and gifts were well known and appreciated, and who will cover whatever he may have wished to be dis-remembered with a mantle of the most sympathetic charity and these words of adieu will find an echo in many hearts when we say,

"Forever, and forever FAREWELL!" and all will sympathize with us in the wish that while he has found rest and peace from his suffering, pain and trouble, he will also realize that,

"There is no death! what seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath,
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death."

The Elections Yesterday.

The two principal State Elections which came off yesterday, were those of Pennsylvania and Ohio, in each of which there were Republican victories. Philadelphia has gone republican by at least five thousand majority, and the state by at least fifteen thousand. There is also a large gain in the legislature. It is impossible at this early hour to give the exact figures.

Ohio has done still better. Thirty five thousand is the Republican Majority set down for that state. Last year the majority was less than five thousand. This is a gain worthy of the name. The other states where elections took place, yesterday, have not yet been heard from.

A head properly constituted can accommodate itself to whatever pillows the vicissitudes of fortune may place under it.

About Home.

The Equitable Insurance Co., of Providence, has no Chicago risks.

Tuesday next, October 17 1871, is the last day for paying city taxes.

As Josh Billings would say, we are having "more we." today.

AID FOR THE SUFFERERS.—The Mayor of Providence has called a meeting for today to devise means to aid the Chicago sufferers. Many other cities, large and small, throughout the country has done the same thing. Where are our city authorities, or is it to be taken for granted that the people of Newport are unwilling to contribute to such a cause. We ought to have come together, last evening, and responded to the call. As a Boston clergyman said to his people, "a thousand dollars now is worth three times and a little time hence."

THE RACE.—Another trial of yachts took place yesterday, the starting of which we neglected to mention at the time, owing to the press of matter. Four yachts entered, and the course was the same as the day before. The Dreadnaught came in ahead, having sailed the course in seven hours and thirty-four minutes. Next in order came the Palmer, her time being seven hours and forty-eight minutes. The Wanderer came in in seven hours and fifty-two minutes, and the Magic in seven hours and fifty-six minutes.

DEDICATION.—The dedicatory exercises of the Union Congregational Church will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The exercises will be of a very interesting character. The clergy of the city are expected to be present. The sermon will be preached by the pastor. The dedication prayer will be offered by Dr. T. Thayer. A Dedicatory Anthem will be sung by the choir.—Contributions and subscriptions will be taken toward paying for the church. There will also be service in the church at 8 o'clock, p. m. Sermon by the Rev. R. B. Johns of Hartford, Ct.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The members of the Newport Artillery Company have voted to give their Colonel a complimentary parade, which will come off on Tuesday next. The paper containing this resolution was presented to Colonel Powel last evening. It was signed by one hundred and one members. The Newport Brass Band, aided by the Cornet Band of Fall River, has been engaged to do escort duty on that day. The Newport Band will receive their guests by the morning train from Fall River, the two will then consolidate, making one band of from forty-five to fifty pieces. At one o'clock the members of the Artillery Company and the bands will assemble at the Armory and march to the residence of their Colonel. He will then take command of the procession, and the parade will take place through several of the principal streets of the city.

In the evening the Newport Band will entertain their guests, and doubtless it will be done in A No. 1 style.

State News.

John B. Gough opens the Lyceum Course lectures in Providence on Friday evening, the 20th inst.

It is estimated that upwards of two thousand people rode out from Providence, to see Mr. McDonald's great basin at Seekonesset Sunday.

The Woonsocket people are to have Emmet on Wednesday evening, at Eliot's Opera House. They should turn out and give him a full house, for he is the best actor they have had there for many years.

Nathaniel Randall lost a black horse and express wagon, taken from Pawtuxet at seven o'clock, Monday evening.

There was a good deal of reckless driving and many narrow escapes, on the Pawtuxet road Sunday.

Mr. William W. Slade of Elmwood, injured in Rehoboth last Sunday, by the bursting of a gun, has suffered the amputation of his left hand in consequence. The operation was performed by Surgeon Mason of Providence. The patient is at his father's house in Seekonk, and as comfortable as is to be expected.

Return of the President.

The National Republican of Saturday, says, the extended tour of the President and family is now completed, the President having reached the city last night. At 9:30 yesterday morning the party reached Baltimore from Pittsburg, and were met by General Babcock, who immediately took charge of Mrs. Grant, Miss Nellie, and Master Jesse, and Mrs. Babcock, and with them came through direct to Washington, the President remaining in Baltimore. The route from Pittsburg was almost an ovation, as at each stopping-place there was a throng of people who had come a long way to see the President, and who greeted him with the friendliest demonstrations, assurances of their confidence and support in the affairs of his administration. During Thursday he visited the fair now in progress at Baltimore, where he remained for some time an interested spectator, receiving from all parties a hearty and cordial recognition.

Minnesota Forest Fires.

A dispatch from St. Paul, Minn., states that the forest fires are still raging with unabated fury, although the slight rain of Saturday arrested the progress a little for a time. The course of the fire is south, and up to last accounts it had reached nearly as far south as the Iowa border, and eastward as far as the Minnesota river, which it is hoped will check its further progress. The high wind Sunday drove the fire forward with alarming rapidity, and it was burning fiercely in the big woods around Henderson, Mankato, and New Ulm. Reports of the ravages of the fire fiend are coming in constantly, though they are evidently exaggerated. The losses, so far as positively known, are confined to houses, barns, fences, hay, wheat, and live stock; only two lives are known to have been lost. There is no means of ascertaining the amount of damage done, owing to the large tract of country over which the fire has swept, and its inaccessible nature, but it must be very heavy. Many small towns have been completely destroyed, and solitary farm houses in the track of the fire have almost invariably been burned to the ground. The amount of suffering must necessarily be great, as many farmers have lost everything.

TELEGRAMS.

THE GREAT FIRE IN CHICAGO.

The Conflagration Unparalleled.

All Business Stopped.

RUIN ON EVERY HAND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.

The excitement in the city relative to the Chicago calamity is in nowise abated this morning. All the people who were going to workshops early were anxious readers of the papers containing Associated Press despatches, and the sales at the news stands have been enormous. Crowds of business men were at the hotels until a late hour last night, to obtain the latest information of the fire, and many were in trepidation fearing they were joint sufferers with their mercantile correspondents in the apparently doomed city.

It is thought that much of the business will be entirely suspended. Many of our insurance companies will doubtless be compelled to suspend for a short time in order to ascertain their liabilities, while the grain and produce trade will undoubtedly be brought to a complete standstill. Every one in our community feels a deep sorrow for the sufferers, and the response to the Mayor's proclamation for help will be spontaneous and of a liberality worthy of the great metropolis.

NEW YORK, Oct 10.

A Chicago special to the Times dated 2:20 this morning, contains the following additional news: The fire proof buildings burned like tinder, especially the banks, not one of which remains. Few business persons saved even their papers. The whole population was busy all night and the streets are now like a bivouac with sleeping men. The loss of life it is impossible to estimate.

The shipping ordered into the north branch of the river was sent adrift into Lake Michigan. Many vessels were burned. All business is suspended and must remain so for the present. Tremendous efforts were made to save the Tribune and Post, as well as the City Hall and Government buildings, but nothing remains but blackened stores and crackling cinders. No papers can be published until type comes from elsewhere, as the type foundries are also burned.

The origin of the fire was in a stable where a woman took a kerosene lamp at milking-time. A large number of the firemen were killed, and all did their duty nobly; but the streams of water on the burning blocks were like fountain jets against the awful heat of the conflagration. The new hotel, eight or nine stories high, just completed, sent up pyramids of solid flame, making the water of Lake Michigan ruby-colored.

For miles the burning bridges along the river were swinging, a graceful arch of fire from shore to shore. The burning ships sailed in crimson waters. All the churches in the south division, the Convent of Mercy, all the railroad buildings and the front mansions on Michigan and Wabash avenues, are gone. The very pavements are burned.

One hundred squares are already burned in the southern division. The population will probably be reduced fifty thousand in a month. Business men cannot resume unless substantial help is sent from the East and West. A hundred thousand employes engaged in mercantile business are out of employment.

The streets leading to the one unbroken bridge west are completely blocked by all kinds of vehicles carrying sick and injured people and blackened furniture. The county records are safe, but the city records are lost. Mayor Mason has received despatches from St. Louis, Milwaukee, Detroit, Louisville and elsewhere inquiring what they shall send. He asks for cooked food for 100,000 houseless persons.

FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF THE CHICAGO FIRE.

FAILURES OF STOCK BROKERS.

CRITICAL CONDITION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10, 11.15 A. M.

The Transcript special says, crowds are surrounding the newspaper and Telegraph bulletins to learn further news from Chicago.—It is a very black day for New York because of its intimate business relations with Chicago. Insurance men bitterly complain at the New York papers for assisting, instead of attempting to arrest, a panic by the alarming sensational character of the comments on the situation. Among the companies which are suffering severely are the Albany, City and Home of this city.

Insurance men inform me that all the companies in Illinois have been undoubtedly ruined by the fire. Their total assets are only $6,746,000, which will be wiped out, together with the $5,000,000 of cash capital.

It is believed that the Andes Company of Cincinnati, and the Home and Excelsior of this city, are crippled beyond recovery. Mr. Bennett however, of the Andes, telegraphed late last night from Chicago that they would be able to meet their assets.

The Liverpool & London and Globe & North British and Mercantile are also heavy losers, but their enormous capital will insure them against serious embarrassment.

11.20 A. M. The following failures of stock firms are announced: A. B. Vandyke, E. S. Munroe and Camblos & Co. It is said that fifteen insurance companies are winding up.

11.54 A. M. News from England is unfavorable. It is the belief that the Bank of England will advance the rate of discount still further. There is much anxiety as two o'clock, approaches, which is settlement hour. It is expected that many banks will have to go under.

Money is active and the city banks, in order to meet the demand, are compelled to trench on their legal reserve. Their excess over legal requirements was only a little over a million last Saturday.

Better reports come from the Illinois Central people, who say that the grain burned is less than anticipated, and that their elevators are all right.

12 M. In interviews with leading bankers the following is the substance of the answers given:

The fire will affect New York city in many ways. If the damage reported be true, then the railways concentrating at Chicago will suffer heavily, while if the amount of grain destroyed comes up to anticipations, prices will advance. A great many capitalists of Chicago will be ruined, and as purchases of merchandise etc., were made in New York, the reaction will be felt here and failures will follow.

The insurance companies have large risks, and Eastern companies also. Some of the latter are already reported in trouble. As the companies' surplus balances are lent out, the necessary return of the same in preparation for emergencies will cause perhaps some slight monetary disturbance.

The destruction of valuable railroad property, grain elevators, and barges laden with grain for Eastern markets, must of necessity tell upon the valuation of railways, lessen the earnings and seriously affect contracts now pending in the matter of breadstuffs upon which New York advances largely, and trade for a time at least must be prostrated.

A Chicago millionaire, visiting here, has just received a despatch stating that his wholesale store and every building belonging to him is in ashes.

It is believed the Chicago Republican will not resume publication. The Post, Journal and Tribune had ample funds and will rebuild at once. Wilson, proprietor of the Journal, had just returned from a buffalo hunt on the prairies.

A special from Chicago says thousands of people were on the banks of the lake last night without food or shelter.

THE TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.

The Herald's special sends the following: Hundreds were trampled under foot—men and women, loaded with bundles and household goods, to whose skirts were clinging tender children, all seeking a place of safety. Hours afterwards they might have been seen in vacant lots, or on streets far in the suburbs, stretched in the dust.

It is fearful to think of the loss of life. It is conjectured, with good cause, that near 500 persons were burned to death. We saw four men enter a burning building and in a moment they were overwhelmed by a falling wall. There was a crowd of men around the corner of a building trying to save property, when the wall yielding, some were buried beneath it. Twelve or fifteen men, women and children rushed into the building of the Historical Society, a fire proof building, for safety. In a few minutes the flames burst up, and they were burned to death. Among those who took refuge in this building was the venerable Col. Samuel Stone, eighty years of age; also, John B. Gerard and wife, and Mme. Depelgrone, a noted teacher of music. It is feared that Dr. Fercar and family are also burned, as they were in the building, and have not been seen since. Mrs. Edsall, whose husband was murdered last week, and who, suffering from illness, was carried away for protection to a building, which was afterwards consumed, and it is feared that she also perished.

All the books and papers of the Historical Society, including the original copy of the famous emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln, for which the Society paid twenty-five thousand dollars, were destroyed.

It is feared that a large number of children, inmates of the Catholic Orphan Asylum, on State street, were also burned, as many of them were missing.

On Chicago avenue a father rushed up stairs to carry three children away, when he was overtaken by the flames and perished with them. The mother was afterwards seen on the street a raving maniac. In the same neighborhood a family of five persons perished. The list of such fatalities is very long and can only be fully verified after the smoke has cleared away. There are hundreds of families on the northwest side who saved no clothing and but barely their lives. Among these are the family of Perry Smith, formerly president of the Northwestern Railroad Company.

Another Account of the Fire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.

The following reliable and graphic description of the fire is furnished by a gentleman who participated in the work of subduing the flames:

None but an eye witness can form any idea of the fury and power of the fire-fiend as he revelled among the palatial buildings and warehouses on the south side, with the wind blowing a hurricane. At times it seemed but the work of a moment for the fire to enter the south ends of buildings fronting on Randolph, Lake, and Water streets, and reappearing at the north doors and windows, belching forth in fierce flames, which often licked the opposite buildings, and then flames issuing forth from buildings on both of the street, unite and present a solid mass of fire, completely filling the street from side and shooting upwards a hundred feet into the air above the house tops in mad career. Thus was street after street filled with flame huge walls would fall without apparently giving a sound in the roar of the fierce element.

Many of the buildings situated along South Water street buried their red hot rear walls in the river, into which they plunged with a hiss. The heat was so intense at times, from some burning buildings, that they could not be approached within one hundred and fifty feet. The fire after reaching the business portion of Randolph and South Water streets, leaped the river to the north side in an incredible short space of time, and thence among the wooden buildings on that side, reached the lake shore, after touching block after block of dwelling with the fierce blast. A scene of such utter powerlessness was never presented. The people bowed their heads in anguish and suffered the fiend to have untrammelled sway.

While many instances of generous devotion on the part of the rich and poor in dividing with the destitute, there are painful instances of meanness and selfishness. One person, who was trying to remove valuable papers from an office, asked two firemen to help. They refused unless paid fifty dollars. The papers were destroyed. Drivers of express wagons have taken $100 and even $500 for an hour's use of their vehicles.

Among the sad scenes was the appearance of hundreds of men and boys beastly intoxicated around the streets of the north division, where the saloon keepers' stocks of liquors were turned into the streets, and furnished convenient opportunity for the gratification of their slavish propensities. It can hardly be doubted that many of these poor wretches found death in the flames. One poor man had crowded for refuge into a water main lying in the street near the water works, but the fire found him even there, and robbed him of his life.

The Losses and Insurance.

Later.—A careful estimate of insurances, today, shows that there were risks on property destroyed of over two hundred millions dollars. Add another one hundred million and a fair estimate can be reached of the loss.

All the leading merchants who have been seen express a determination to resume business at once. This includes heavy houses, such as John V. Farwell, Field, Leiter & Co., and Sprague, Warner & Co. Farwell & Co. and Field, Leiter & Co., saved from three hundred thousand to half a million dollars worth of goods. Both firms have already established headquarters on the west side.

The Evening Journal and Tribune hope to publish small sheet tomorrow.

The Warning has been Heeded.

Since the exposure of the attempts made by certain unscrupulous local dealers, to palm off their coarse astringents, made from cheap and impure materials, in the place of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, public opinion has set strongly against these empirics and their preparations. Their occupation is gone, or soon will be.—When the light is let into deception it soon wilts down. Persons who trifle with their own health, by using unknown preparations, with no guarantee to sustain them, when an established specific, proven by twenty years experience to be exactly what it is claimed to be, is within their reach, are sure to repent their temerity. Many have done so in this instance, but it is hoped that the truth plainly spoken has arrested the evil. In the meantime the demand for the leading protective and restorative medicine of America was never so great as it has been this season. From the fever and ague districts of the west, southwest, and south, it is literally overwhelming, and it may be said of the advices from all parts of the country of the cures it is effecting in dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and chronic constipation, that "their name is legion." Everywhere the sick and feeble seem to have realized the importance of "holding fast that which is good," and of avoiding what is spurious and dangerous.

FIFTY YEARS AGO.

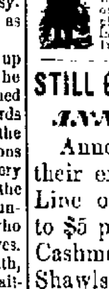

What changes in the world we've seen,
Since fifty years ago, or so;
What revolutions there have been,
A host of facts there are to show.
To travel fifty miles a day,
Our fathers found a task indeed;
Two hundred now—or more—we may
Be drawn by the force from Steed.
The Boys then "dressed" in home-spun "Clothes,"
With cow-hide shoes upon their feet;
But now they're "Clothed" at George Fenno's,
Corner of Beach and Washington street, Boston.

I have used "Dr. Bullock's Nephreticum" for several months past for a disease of the Kidneys and Bladder of ten years standing. During all that long and gloomy period I suffered at times attacks of the most excruciating pains and tried all kinds of medicines and many eminent physicians, with little relief at times, yet with no permanent, lasting benefit. At last I was induced to try "Nephreticum," and after continuing its use for a considerable period of time, I began to be benefited, and now I feel satisfied that I have obtained permanent, and, I trust, lasting relief. I still take "Nephreticum" and give to my friends. For a year past I have had no severe attacks of disease. I feel it has given me a new lease of life, and I most cheerfully and confidently recommend "Nephreticum" as a reliable, safe and sure remedy for diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys.

The Cause and Cure of Consumption.

The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These Pills cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid and the appetite is poor. In the bowels, the lacteals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Seaweed Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure is a new order of things, a good appetite, a good nutrition, the body to grow in flesh and get fat; then Nature is helped, the cavities will heal, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the true and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, if there is enough vitality left in the other to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age.—This is what Schenck's medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion, and give Nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

It is important that, while using Schenck's medicines, care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in-doors in cool and damp weather; avoid night air, and take out-door exercise only in a genial and warm sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed consumptives' lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the biting blasts of winter or the chilling winds of spring or autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the first of October I expect to take possession of my new building at the north-east corner of Sixth and Arch streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.

Full directions accompany all my remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Insurance!

THESE are the days that try the Insurance Companies. Among those that have funds with which to pay losses promptly are the following:

Aetna, of Hartford, Assets	$5,762,625
North American, of Phil., "	3,050,535
Peoples, of Worcester,	888,656

These old Companies have withstood many a storm before this. The Aetna has paid losses to the amount of $28,000,000, and the Insurance Co. of North America $23,500,000. This last Company dates back to 1794, and has an honorable record, equal to the Aetna itself. The fire at Chicago will not take much more than half the surplus of the Peoples Insurance Co., to say nothing of its capital.

Policies may be secured in either of the above at fair rates and losses will be as promptly paid as heretofore.

MESSRS. FLINT & CO.—Gents:—You ask for my opinion of Old Dr. Warren's Quaker Bitters. As I have never used them I cannot speak from perset knowledge, but the general speech of the people is marked and strong in their favor. I am so far satisfied that they are a pure, safe and effective alternative and tonic, that I have ordered a case of them sent to my aged mother. Their reputation keeps pace with their sales, and as they are scientifically compounded of the best ingredients, they are not to be classed with the great variety of nostrums patented on a suffering public by quacks.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS

Straw for Stock.

With many farmers, the impression prevails that straw has no value as food for animals, and that, therefore, it is far better to be applied to the soil as a fertilizer in the ordinary way, than used for litter, or spread on the manure heap to be trodden down and incorporated with the manure by the stock, as is generally done.

Straw may be advantageously used as a divisor of cattlefood. For instance, where root crops are raised and pulped, and then mixed with finely cut straw, there is no doubt that the value of root-pulp is greatly increased by the addition of the cut straw, especially if the straw has been steamed or scalded before the admixture. The additional advantage of this method is, the constituents of the straw are returned to the soil in a form so minutely divided, that they are more readily assimulated by the growing crops, than without the assistance of the digestive organs of the animal.

Concentrated food is always benefitted by the admixture of cut straw with it. "Oat meal, corn meal, linseed cake, and other grains may be mixed with cut straw until the nutritive average of the mass will be equal to that of the best hay or grass." The advantage to the animal is not only in the division, but in the amount of nutritious matter the straw may contain. It may not be much, but it is something, and a proper economy demands that everything, that can be should be turned to advantage. Where it is possible therefore, to feed straw in the form named above, there is no doubt that it will prove more valuable to the farmer than when applied to the soil directly, or spread over the manure heap and incorporated with the droppings of the cattle.

$500 WILL BE FORFEITED BY DR. L. DIX if failing to cure in less time than any other physician, more effectually and permanently, with less restraint from occupation or fear of exposure to all weather, with safe and pleasant medicines.

SPECIAL AILMENTS AND SITUATIONS Incident to Married and Single Ladies
SECRET AND DELICATE DISORDERS;
Mercurial Affections, Eruptions and all Diseases of the Skin; Ulcers of the Nose, Throat and Body; Pimples on the Face; Swellings of the Joints; Nervousness; Constitutional and other Weaknesses in Youth, and the more advanced, at all ages, of BOTH SEXES, SINGLE OR MARRIED.

DR. L. DIX'S PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass.,
is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

DR. DIX boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston.

TWENTY YEARS engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to Strangers and Travelers.

To avoid and escape imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities, DR. L. DIX proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE! be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS, who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by

QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS, through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines BY THE DEAD, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon MERCURY, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

DR. L. DIX'S charges are very moderate. Communications sacredly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

TO THE LADIES.—The celebrated DR. L. DIX particularly invites all ladies who need a Medical or Surgical adviser, to call at his Rooms, No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., which they will find arranged for their special accommodation.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this particular branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he excels all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases, such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. The Doctor is now fully prepared to treat in his peculiar style, both medically and surgically, all diseases of the female sex, and they are respectfully invited to call at

THE NOVELTY CLOTHES

WRINGER.

Nothing, except the Sewing Machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the household as the Wringer. But its usefulness does not end here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture, last twice as long when wrung in a Wringer as when wrung by hand. The NOVELTY has Cog-wheels on both ends. The rolls are allowed to separate freely at either end.—These, besides other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.
New York Independent.

The Novelty Wringer.—Has become an indispensable institution in thousands of families.—And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited—for the Novelty evidently possesses all the requisites of a first-class, practical machine. Indeed, after using one for many months in our own family, we are prepared to indorse the Novelty as unsurpassed (the laundress says unequaled,) by any of the several wringers previously tried.—Moore's Rural New Yorker.

A lady writes: "About six months ago my hair was coming out so badly that at every dressing I used to get a handful, which, not wishing to throw away, I put by in a box. THE VERY BEST CHURCH MUSIC BOOK

Just Ready.

THE SACRED CROWN:

A COLLECTION OF

New Hymn Tunes, Anthems, Sentences, Motets & Chants

For Public and Private Worship,

Together with a Complete and Practical System of Elementary Instruction, written expressly for this work; a large collection of four-part Songs, Glees and Choruses for Singing Schools and Musical Conventions

By D. F. Hodges,

The well-known Author and Conductor; Associate Editor of the very successful work, "Jubilant Voices,"

And C. W. FOSTER,

One of our most popular New England Teachers.

Price $1.50; $13.50 per dozen.

WE invite those in want of Furniture of any kind, to call and examine our stock, and think it would be for their advantage, for the following reasons:

1st. We purchase our lumber from the mills at the West, where it is taken direct from the forest; and import our Upholstery goods from the manufacturers in Europe, thereby saving the profit of the Importer and the Lumber Dealer.

2d. We manufacture on a large scale, and are enabled to get the best workmen because we can employ them the year round; and in manufacturing articles by the hundred we can do so much cheaper than those who manufacture only by the dozen.

3d. We have double the quantity and variety of goods, and nearly double the room to display them of any Furniture House in Boston, thereby offering purchasers a better chance to suit their taste.

4th. Our rent is cheaper than that of any other Furniture House in Boston, considering the amount of goods sold, and as our sales are large we can afford to sell at a small profit, and are willing to do so.

The authors have spent two years in writing, arranging and selecting for this work, which, in addition to their best efforts, has a larger number, a greater variety, and a better selection of contributions than any previous Music Book of a similar character has produced. We have large orders already for it. Orders will be answered in turn, and special terms made to Teachers and Choristers.—Specimen copies sent by mail postpaid on receipt of $1.50.
